Under Section 472 (a)(4) of the Higher Education Opportunity Act of 2008, schools have the authority to allow a student to borrow an Unsubsidized Loan when the student's parents have ended all financial support and have refused to provide information and sign the student's FAFSA application. If you are no longer receiving any financial support from your parents, and they refused to provide information and sign your FAFSA application, your parent must complete this form. If you parent refused to sign this form, you must attach documentation from a disinterested third party to support your request (teacher, counselor, cleric or court). This is YOUR loan application form. For many forms requested by the Financial Aid Office, you will need to provide a "wet" signatures. Names typed in script fonts are not acceptable.
